

Rose Cottage, Askrigg Access Statement

This access statement does not contain personal opinions as to the suitability of the holiday cottage for those with access needs, but aims to accurately describe the facilities and services that we offer all our guests.

The information contained within this statement was correct at the time of publication. Whilst we update this statement on a regular basis, we are not responsible for any changes to services provided by third party suppliers / cottage owners and which are detailed here in good faith.

Introduction

We are a small family run self-catering holiday cottage agency, with an emphasis on quality, comfort and service, and our holiday cottages are real homes from home. We care about the small details that make your holiday special and will assist you with your enquiries and needs where possible.

Much of the information in these access statements is common to many of the holiday cottages this is detailed below with more specific access information then provided for each holiday cottage after the general information.

All of our holiday cottages are in the Yorkshire Dales National Park. They are in Askrigg and West Burton in Wensleydale, and West Stonesdale which is a tributary valley of Upper Swaledale.

The majority of the cottages are old and are either listed buildings or in a Conservation Area or both, so this means that there are statutory obligations and limitations in terms of design and conversion. The original design and layouts of the cottages are still evident and form part of their history and charm, but for most of the properties this means that they may present more of a challenge to those who have specific or restricted access needs.

All of the cottages are independently owned and we are agents for all of the cottages. Some are also managed by us and others by the owners. We live in Askrigg where the majority of the cottages are based so are easily accessible in the event of any problems in Askrigg.

For the cottages in West Burton and West Stonesdale you are provided with full contact details of the owners or caretakers at the time of paying your final deposit and all of the properties also have these contact details available in the Useful Information kept in the cottage. For those cottages managed by the owners, we are also contactable in the case of emergencies as we live about 20 minutes away from West Burton and about 40 minutes away from West Stonesdale.

Broadband internet access is available in all of the cottages and this is detailed on our website for each cottage or you can ring us to check availability. However please note that we cannot guarantee the availability of this service as it is provided by third parties.

All of our cottages have at least free to air digital channels but because we are not served by the main transmitters the full range of channels isn't available to get around this most of the cottages have Sky Freeview with many having additional packages - again details are provided on our website for each cottage.

All of our cottages are non-smoking inside, although you are free to smoke outside but please tidy away any cigarette butts etc.

Each cottage has an information guide with details on the area, including local shops, supermarkets, garages, emergency contact numbers and places to eat.

Some of our cottages accept well behaved pets and this is stated on our website where this is the case. Others do not accept pets. If you have any allergies, then please feel free to check with us beforehand. Where pets are accepted it is on the proviso that they are not allowed on beds or furniture and are not left unattended in the cottages unless they are in a cage. Many local pubs and teashops are pet friendly.

Our comprehensive web site gives full information about the cottages including photographs, the local area, real time availability, prices, booking and what there is to see and do in the area.

We do publish a brochure and are able to provide this in large print upon request but we provide the most information on each property and the area via our website.

We accept payment by most major credit and debit cards, cheque and cash.

Mobile Phone Signals

Because we are in a National Park which is a rural, hilly area there are not many mobile phone masts which means that mobile phone coverage and the signal can be patchy or non-existent. The EE and Vodafone networks tend to have the best coverage in the area, and some networks have no coverage so do not work at all. Please check with your mobile phone provider if this is important to you. However, some of the cottages do provide telephones, although they may be on an incoming calls only basis for landlines or a pay as you go basis for mobiles and these are detailed in the individual cottage descriptions or we can advise you where this is the case.

- Askrigg - EE and Vodafone usually work here. In some cases, due to the thickness of the walls, it is not possible to get mobile phone reception in the cottages and it may be necessary to go outside, although mobile phone reception is usually much better on the first floor either in or near a window.
- West Burton - EE and Vodafone usually work here. In some cases, due to the thickness of the walls, it is not possible to get mobile phone reception in the cottages and it may be necessary to go outside, although mobile phone reception is usually much better on the first floor either in or near a window.

- West Stonesdale - There is no mobile phone signal at all but there is a phone provided which allows with incoming calls, and also local and emergency outgoing calls. There is a public phone box in the village but it does not accept coins.

Taxis

also suggest that you obtain a quote for the cost as this can be variable depending upon the firm used and whether they are used to providing a longer distance service.

Arrival and Car Parking Facilities

All of the cottages are in rural locations, especially those in Swaledale, so travel is easier by car than public transport. The majority of our guests do arrive by car.

Upon booking we provide you with directions, a map and access details for each cottage, along with contact details for both ourselves and/or the cottage owners/caretakers.

Some cottages have dedicated parking, some on street parking and again this is specified on our website for each cottage and the access statement. Whilst we cannot guarantee parking for those cottages with on street parking, it is not usually a problem and you will usually be parked no more than 30-40 yards away from your cottage. The majority of the cottages were built before cars were even thought of so are not always directly next to a road.

All of the cottages are equipped with detailed information books about the property, the appliances and what to do in the area. They also include contact phone numbers. All of the cottages have tourist information available and there is a network of Tourist Information and National Park Centres-again details of these are given on our website www.askrigg.com.
